July 24,2022

The Bases Loaded Loaded

2022 NSAD Hall of Fame Inductees

Pat Kinast -the leader

Pat started to play softball in 1990. He elected as FAAD Commissioner in 2000. Ran the FAAD tournaments. He elected NSAD Treasurer in 2007 to 2015. Also he was tournament director in 2014 & 2015. He become NSAD Commissioner in 2016. Also coach his Austin Legit to the championship game in 2021.

Corey Fletcher -the player

His first NSAD tournament in 2001 with Beaverton Sharks. First NSAD Champions in 2009 with Hoy's Boys. He was outstanding outfielder and excellent hitter. His team won more 9 titles. Countless All Stars.Playing 4 different teams (Beaverton, Utah, Hoy's Boys and West Coast)

Honesty Powell -the player

firstShe first joined NSAD in 2007. Playing for Midwest Runnin' Rebels and won the NSAD title. Also named MVP. She did play for Wichita Cavalry. Then winning NSAD titles with Midwest Runnin' Rebels in 2015 and 2016. Then led her Seattle Mermaids to win NSAD titles in 2017. Again led her Keep Texas Weird to won the NSAD in 2018 and named MVP. She played for CoEd Ruthless 2nd place.

Bob Rush- the player

He is playing softball for 31 years. Led his Carolina to win NSAD title in 2010. Again led his Sioux Falls Blue Sox to win Co-Champion in 2013. Last year he carried his Austin Legit to the championship game. He was the king of Homerun third time.. He played for 7 Half fame coaches (Rewolinski, Duhon, Mueller, Stewart, Gevarter, Johnson and Kinast. Several times to get All Star. He played different teams, Carolina, Tampa Bay, Sioux Falls Blue Sox and Austin Legit.

Matt Spurgeon- the player

He played 15 years at NSAD. He led his Hoy's Boys and West Coast to win NSAD at least 8 titles. Named Most Valuable Player twice. Also named Most Outstanding Player once. Every season he won All Stars. Won the Batting Champion. Tied with 3 players for most home runs. He played first base. He is excellent left hitters. He always practice the batting. Full of balls in his car trunk. Always collected the used balls after NSAD tournament done.

See you on Saturday, July 30

At the championship game.